

ALBION MARINE SOLUTIONS

Trusted Engineering Partner

info@albionmarine.com

www.albionmarine.com

Position: NDT Technician

Albion Marine Solutions provides project management, engineering, consultancy and conversion services to maritime and offshore industries worldwide.

The NDT Technician will require extensive travel within Canada, USA, Asia and Europe.

Requirements:

- Degree in non-destructive testing, marine, material engineering or naval architecture
- 3+ years' of related field experience
- Excellent project management skills
- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- Enterprise-level computer platform experience, including MS Office
- Must possess the qualifications of an NDT Technician
- Must possess the minimum of Level II for:
 - Ultrasonic Testing (UT)
 - Magnetic Testing (MT)
 - Eddy Current Testing (ET)
 - Penetrant Testing (PT)
 - Radiographic Testing (RT)

Typical Duties

- Performs and completes NDT vessel inspections in compliance with client, industry and company standards and policies.
- Prepares and completes all necessary paperwork required in compliance with client, industry and company standards and policies.
- Ensures all equipment is set up, calibrated and functional at all times in alignment with client and company procedures.
- Applies testing criteria in accordance with applicable specifications for both conventional and advanced NDT methods.
- Proactively provides feedback to the Lead regarding findings, quality & quantity.
- Perform their daily duties as assigned from a Lead.
- Must be able to effectively carry out the duties of the position with a minimum of supervision.